

Debbie Epstein Henry is a lawyer turned entrepreneur, author, and public speaker with an expertise in women, careers, workplace dynamics and law. Debbie runs DEH Consulting, Speaking, Writing and consults with and speaks at private retreats, public events and conferences for companies, law firms and other professional service firms as well as non-profits. Her international work includes multiple engagements in The Hague as well as in Paris at the French Senate and in London and Vienna and other cities abroad.

Debbie runs the DEH Speaker Series, offering virtual programming with New York Times best-selling authors, TED speakers, and thought leaders, that draws hundreds to 1,000+ participants per quarter. She is also the host of the podcast, Inspiration Loves Company, where she explores how to do better and be better at life, work and everything in-between.

Debbie wrote two best-selling books, Law & Reorder (author) and Finding Bliss (co-author). Hundreds of news outlets have featured her work including The New York Times, NBC Nightly News, The Wall Street Journal and National Public Radio. Through Debbie's public speaking, press exposure and advocacy, she built a national network of over 10,000 lawyers. From there, in 2011, she co-founded Bliss Lawyers, a company that employed high caliber attorneys to work on temporary engagements for in-house legal department and law firm clients. In 2020, Debbie co-facilitated the successful acquisition of Bliss Lawyers by its largest competitor, Axiom, the global leader in high-caliber, on-demand legal talent.

Debbie volunteers her time with a number of non-profits. She is the immediate past president and board chair of The Forum of Executive Women, a nomination-only, membership organization of the top 600 women in business in the greater Philadelphia region. She is also the co-founder and chair of Brooklyn Law School Women's Leadership Circle which runs the Women's Leadership Network, a national women's law student and alumnae initiative. Debbie has received numerous awards including being named among the Philadelphia Business Journal's "Women of Distinction." In 2017, she received the Anne X. Alpern Award, presented annually to a female lawyer who demonstrates excellence in the legal profession and who makes a significant professional impact on women in the law. Debbie received her B.A. from Yale. She received her J.D., cum laude, from Brooklyn Law School. A native New Yorker, Debbie and her husband recently returned to the New York area; they have three grown sons.
